Dear Chief Woodruff,

Apparently your department has seen fit to publicize the video on the traffic stop in March involving Officer Shepard. As a result, I have received this harassing email below (riddled with spelling errors, by the way), and a separate email was sent to GLT radio by another person named Tim Brown.

Out of the generosity of my heart, I decided not to lodge a complaint against your officer although I received legal advice that I not only had the basis for a legitimate claim, but also legal action against your department.

I would like to know how and why this video has become public three months after the incident.

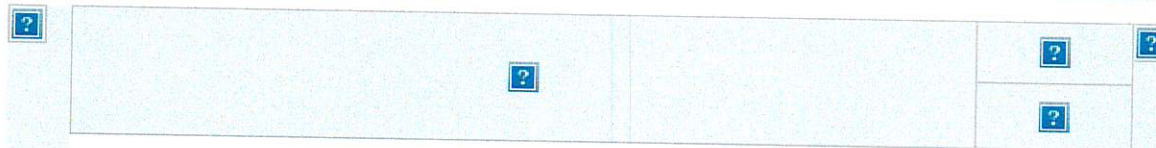

I did not deserve to be man-handled by your officer on that date, many members of the public would agree.

Please call me at your earliest convenience to discuss this. I am happy to come into your office.

Sincerely,
Judith Valente

Message: I watched the police cam videos from your vehicle license violation and stopped by ISU police. Why did you get so defensive? You need more contemplating about life's stresses. You totally blow it? Take a chill pill next time instead of taking it out on the police. They have lots of stress too. And you made matters worse. Think before speaking..but first pray to God for grace. God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble.
