Good afternoon,

Just an update on board candidate Fitzgerald Samedy.

I had two conversations with him this morning totaling about an hour. In the end, he realizes the prospects of running with his name attached to Jon Reed along with him having to explain his criminal background check may be too much at this time. He states that everything criminal background was dismissed both in McLean and Cook Counties. I'm not sure that is accurate. Given that he did not show up for two meetings he scheduled with me several weeks ago, I am concerned about his follow through with the official withdrawal. I will keep you posted on anything I hear from the election commission on that. Assuming he follows through you will have an open seat with only three running for four spots. You will get to interview and select similar to when Kiasha was appointed once the new board is seated following the election.

You will see in my email to Fitzgerald that I offered to get him involved in the district in other capacities. This is contingent on everything in his criminal background being dismissed as he claims. This was part of the lengthy conversation I had with him to help get him to a place where he agreed to withdraw from the race.

I will be checking email during spring break and am available by [REDACTED] if you need anything.

Have a wonderful weekend and a great spring break!
